The use of texts, images, software and functionalities of this website requires prior permission from ACSI Holding B.V. To submit your request, please use the contact form. This form can be completed after you have selected the option 'Contact' in the menu on the left (varies per website) on the home page.

Documents and information available on this website may be used for informative and personal, non-commercial purposes. However, this information may not be copied or cited (posted) on another network computer or be sent using other media. Moreover, it is not permitted to edit the information and any accompanying graphic representation on this website in any manner whatsoever.

Amendments

ACSI reserves the right to make amendments to this statement. If you have any questions or comments with regard to ACSI's privacy policy, please contact us by completing the contact form.

Conditions for use of ACSI logos and images

1. The logos on this website have been registered as a trademark by ACSI and are therefore legally protected. Use of the logos by you as a business partner for promotional purposes is permitted. However, we do explicitly ask you to report the use of one or more of the trademarks/logos on your website or in your brochure beforehand. An email message will suffice. Select the 'Contact - Business contact' option on the horizontal menu close to the bottom of the website www.suncamp.co.uk.

2. If you use the logo(s) on your website, in your brochures or elsewhere, you must also state that the logo(s) are the registered trademarks of ACSI and being used under licence. The text should read as follows: "The (enter the brand name of the relevant logo) logo, registered by ACSI, is used under licence."

3. ACSI reserves the right to refuse permission or withdraw the right to use if the logo(s) is/are used incorrectly or their application conflicts with the interests of ACSI. This could be the case, for example, if the design of the logo has been changed by the user.

4. If the logos are placed on a coloured background, they must all have a white edge around them.

5. If you wish to use one of the logos in a high resolution, downloading the trademark as they are here will suffice. Each logo is an Illustrator EPS. The EPS format consists of vectors, making it suitable for applications in printing.

6. The shape of the logos may not be altered or changed in any way without explicit permission from ACSI Holding B.V. You may enlarge or reduce the logo. A request for an altered version may be submitted via the 'Contact - Business contact' option on www.suncamp.co.uk.
