

Survey of Camping Expectations 2022 German campers

Are you also curious about where German campers want to go on holiday in 2022? ACSI looked into it in partnership with camping shop Obelink. We can now present you with the results.

For this survey, we asked around 5,500 German campers about their plans. We approached them through ACSI and Obelink's European websites, newsletters and social media channels. Campers could take part between 2 February to 17 February.

Camping holidays are going ahead

From the survey it appears that most of the German respondents indicated that they had camping plans for 2022. No less than 99% of the campers who usually go camping with (grand-)children are planning on going on the road this year. Among campers who usually go camping in a different composition (two adults or single person without children, groups of friends or group trips) 98% plan to go on a camping holiday.

Average number of days in 2022

German campers who usually go camping with (grand-)children plan to go camping for an average of 31 days in 2022. Campers who usually go camping in a different composition plan to go camping for 53 days.

These countries are popular

Popular destinations among German campers in 2022 are Germany, Italy and The Netherlands. Finally, we see that compared to 2021, more German campers are planning a trip abroad in 2022. That applies to campers who usually go on holiday with or without (grand-)children.
